Family Open Day

Saturday 16th June

The Army Family Day held on the 16th June held indoors on what was a cool very windy day. The Army had prudently decided to move the event from the Sports Field into one of their four huge hangers (It takes quite a lot of imagination to think these hangers were once full of aircraft now the biggest military plane stored there is about the size of a Wot 4).

Most of the club members were on Thorney for 9.30 and were able to drive into the hanger to unload. We were situated in the South end, the middle of the hanger is now covered in storage area, and the arena, food stalls of the countries of Fiji, Antigua, Countries of Africa and of course the United Kingdom along with other exhibitors' were in the North end. In the South the Army had displayed the RPV Desert Hawk III, man portable anti aircraft systems of the type to be deployed in London for the Olympics, a huge bouncy castle type of assault course which the kids loved, a go-kart circuit, Bognor ATC with a half scale Spitfire, replica Jeep and us.

We had managed to arrange a very good display including two flight simulators, which had a constant stream of people trying their hand, especially the army who fly their planes by just telling them, where to go! I for one was amazed at the cost of these aircraft and I am sure a similar aircraft could be fabricated using modelling techniques' for a fraction of the cost.

The day went well if somewhat noisy, with lots to look at and eat (Hot food could be bought for £5.00 which catered for a wide selection of taste all of which was excellent) and the only incident to report was a young girl driving a go-kart lost control, hit the barrier and damaged Toni's slightly vinegar and brown paper Hercules, fortunately the young lady was not hurt but the Captain in charge closed the Go-kart track down as a result

And I think that I can report that all had a good day. Ken fundamental clause in the use of the field.

be no exceptions to this mandatory action. KK

Dec Cousins has always had from his early school days in Ireland and eclectic interest in aircraft and he has recently acquired a small collection of wooden hand carved aircraft from an eBay shop called 'Builderscience'.

The Blue plane is a Payen Pa.22 "Flechair" (Arrow) designed by Nicolas Roland Payen a frenchman the plane was powered by a 8 litre 180 HP Regnier 6B-01 inverted, six cylinder, inline, air-cooled engine for the 1939 Coupé Deutsch de la Meurthe race. The unflown Pa.22 was being tested in the Eiffel Laboratories' full-size wind tunnel at Chalais-Meudon when Paris fell to the Germans. The Germans finished the wind tunnel tests and took the airplane to the Flight Test Centre at Villacoublay where it was first flown in October 1942 by Payen's pilot, Jacques Charpantier. At Villacoublay the plane was repainted in German colours and returned to Payen's factory in the old Deperdussin works at Juvisy for modifications. There it was destroyed in an Allied raid on nearby rail yards in 1944.

The Orange plane is obviously a Bell X-1 who's design was greatly aided by the British Miles company of Woodley near Reading. The Red and White Delta was flown but as yet Dec has been unable to name it. The Blue and Silver plane is as far as Dec can recall was just a concept design. The tin toys have been included just for interest.

Dec has also given me a link to a short film made by the Irish equivalent of the GPO Film Unit, of Model Flying in Ireland in the fifties and sixties. It's in Gallic but still of interest, Dec tells me he can remember building a Snipe. The link is http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ro_lmaMzdWI

The Flying Saucer is a representation of George Adamski's photograph, which is said to be of a UFO, taken on December 13, 1952.

We all hope Bill enjoys our company and wish him all success with this fascinating and enjoyable hobby

Thorney island access – the following has been received from Defence Estates and should be noted and please do ring before hand to book an appointment

Dear Tony

The Chain of Command has decided that, in future, all personnel, civilian or military, will have an annual expiry date on their vehicle pass that coincides with the expiry of their vehicle road tax.

I would appreciate it if you could circulate this direction to all of your club members and arrange for them to contact me in the New Year to arrange an appointment for a new pass to be issued.

In this connection, and, subject to other commitments, I will be available for pass renewal during the hours 0915-1215 & 1400-1600, Monday to Thursday. Providing the applicant has already undergone the initial Basic Check procedure, I will require one form of photo ID, CADMAC membership card and the tax disc to complete my documentation.

Kind regards

Stephanie
